Awards & Honors

Department of Art – Covington-Rhode Senior Prize Winners Carlos I. Gabaldon, Elleott Leigh Herrera, Vir Kaur Khalsa, Emma Sobel and Lucas Zuniga

The Covington-Rhode Senior Prize in Art at The University of New Mexico recognizes outstanding achievement of our undergraduate art students during their senior year, to promote professionalism and excellence in the visual arts, and motivate and encourage all art students to achieve their fullest potential throughout their years in the program. It's a competitive award for graduating seniors earning a degree in Art exhibiting their artwork and participating in a professional evaluation. The Covington-Rhode Prize was established in 2018 by Patricia Covington and Shari Rhode. Dr. Covington earned two degrees, a BA in Art and a BA in Anthropology from the University of New Mexico in 1968.

Carlos I. Gabaldon (He/Him) is a Queer, Mexican-American Immigrant artist, working with various mediums, with a focus in video and electronic art. Design, atmosphere, and storytelling are the means Gabaldon uses to create interactive and standalone artworks, playing with the instinctual, and questioning the normalized and unconscious.

Elleott Leigh Herrera is an image-based artist whose work explores and documents patterns of life, death, and rebirth in nature. She briefly studied photojournalism at Santa Fe University of Art and Design before coming to UNM in Fall 2017.

Vir Kaur Khalsa's primary interest as an artist is in how reflections break colors down, leading to various interactions of hues. By drawing on photographic prints she merges contrasting processes into one.

Emma Sobel was raised in Santa Fe. She is a lens-based artist, creating narrative portraiture, still life, landscape, film, and assemblage handmade books. She explores femininity, identity, domesticity, relationships, and beauty. She is interested in the body, the home, and the land as sites of allure and exploitation. Creating art is one of her greatest passions.

Lucas Zuniga, is a multi-disciplined artist whose work seeks to confront and experience traditions and impulses of many media. He is at once grateful for his opportunities here at UNM, proud of his growth as an artist, and excited to create so much more.

Department of Film & Digital Arts -
Gus Blaisdell Memorial Award in Critical and Creative Writing - Zelda Deeds

Beloved faculty member Gus Blaisdell encouraged and appreciated original and incisive prose, and the prize that bears his name is awarded to a student whose writing meets his high standards.

Zelda Mercy Deeds, a multimedia creative based in Tijeras, has just completed her Bachelor of Arts in Media Arts. Zelda's studies were centered around avant-garde and experimental filmmaking, though her professional film experience has been in editing and post production. Aside from her secondary outlet, writing, her additional professional experience ranges from graphic design and branding to promotional videography and event coordination. After graduation, Zelda plans to continue working as an assistant editor, but a significant portion of her time will be spent laying in the sun, hanging out with her dog, talking to plants, and making arthouse 16mm films that will never see the light of day, all from the safety of a remote outpost in the forest.

Michael Costello Memorial Award for Service - Enrique Cruz Torres

In tribute to alumnus and employee Michael Costello, this award is presented to a student who exemplifies the spirit of service to other students, faculty, and staff.

Enrique Cruz Torres is a first generation Mexican American student graduating with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Interdisciplinary Film and Digital Media while simultaneously pursuing a Master of Business Administration. He served as the LoboTHON Marketing Director, Southwest Film Center Executive Director, and Chair of the Cherry Reel Film Festival, as well as co-founding the ABQ Film Society-Reel Club. Enrique is excited to join the film industry with his company, Istoria Productions.

Movie Magic Producer Award – J Keenan Wallace

Entertainment Partners, owners of Movie Magic Budgeting and Movie Magic Scheduling Software, sponsor this new award for UNM's outstanding student film producer.

St. Louis native J Keenan Wallace is graduating with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Interdisciplinary Film and Digital Media in three years. He was a part of creating The Reel Club, represented UNM at the Deadline Hotspots: New Mexico conference, and took on several crew positions for multiple capstone film projects and the department's summer 2019 "Drifteen" production. J worked as a videographer at the College of Education and served as a faculty assistant for the Set Design and Construction class. In the future, he plans to produce comedy films and eventually become a professor and mentor to future students.

Department of Music – Theodore Presser Scholarship - Andreas Landstedt

The Presser Undergraduate Scholar Award is awarded annually to an outstanding music major at or near the end of his or her junior year. The award is based on merit and achievement and is intended to recognize excellence.

Andreas Landstedt is a nineteen-year-old aspiring pianist studying under Professor Falko Steinbach at the University of New Mexico, where he will be entering his senior year this Fall. Landstedt has been playing piano since a very young age, and in his teenage years won many competitions in his home state of New Mexico, including the MTNA competition and the Jackie McGehee Young Artists' Competition, the latter of which awarded him the opportunity to perform the third movement of Mendelssohn's Piano Concert No. 1 with the New Mexico Philharmonic in 2018. Internationally, Landstedt has participated in the Klavierfestival Lindlar, run by Prof. Steinbach; in 2019, he was the recipient of a festival-associated financial reward from the city of Wipperfürth, the "Förderstipendium der Hansestadt Wipperfürth." In 2018, he also participated in the International Summer Piano Camp of Brindisi with acclaimed Italian conductor-pianist Stefano Miceli.

Landstedt's focus is primarily on solo works, with the ambition of becoming a professional performer. His repertoire spans hundreds of years from the Renaissance to Contemporary eras, with a particular fondness for Romantic pieces, including the sonatas of Ludwig van Beethoven and the works of Spanish composer Isaac Albéniz. Landstedt also takes on collaborative efforts, including solo accompaniment, chamber ensembles, and works for two pianos/four hands. Landstedt has served two years as the pianist for the University of New Mexico Wind Symphony and is the pianist for Daniel Steven Crafts' Gonzo Opera Troupe in Albuquerque since 2017. Landstedt involves himself with student-organized ensembles and has played in student compositions for academic festivals and recitals. Landstedt plans to continue his studies well beyond the undergraduate level.

The Donald McRae Award for Outstanding Senior

Donald McRae was Dean of the College of Fine Arts from 1978 to 1986. The award recognizes one outstanding senior student from each department, and selects one winner from these candidates for the McRae award. Students are selected based on academics, service to the college and university, contributions to the arts, and an interview process. The award has continued to recognize outstanding students with support from the McRae family.

Department of Art - Wyatt Pottorff

Wyatt James Jackson Pottorff, is a twenty-three-year-old artist from Deming, New Mexico. More specifically, his is a surrealist painter, a desert dweller, and one who relentlessly questions everyone and everything. His paintings examine extreme aspects of life and are guided by a principle of creating experiences that demand the viewer's vulnerability. They are executed in an array of mediums that include oil, acrylic, spray-paint, dried grass and bone fragments. Pottorff's work has been exhibited in several galleries that include UNM's John Sommers Gallery as well as Site Santa Fe.

Department of Film & Digital Arts – J Keenan Wallace

J Keenan Wallace is originally from St. Louis, Missouri. J completed his BFA in Film and Digital Arts at the University of New Mexico in three years with Magna Cum Laude honors. At UNM, he helped create The Reel Club, represented UNM at Deadline Hotspots: New Mexico, and served on several student committees. He worked as a videographer at the College of Education for two years, a teaching assistant for the Set Design and Construction Class, and several crew positions for colleagues' capstone film projects. His goal is to produce comedy films and eventually mentor future students of the craft.

Department of Music – Helen Barber

Helen Barber is graduating with her bachelor's degree in music education with an instrumental concentration, and a designation in honors. Throughout her time at UNM Helen has been involved in organizations around campus, including the Lobo Horn Club, UNM NAFME, and the UNM Women's Rugby Team. She has explored a variety of performing opportunities through the Duke City Horn Quartet, the Holiday Horn Ensemble, as well as collaborative recital projects. Helen hopes to become a teacher here in Albuquerque, dedicated to developing strong community connections and support for every student she serves.

Department of Theatre and Dance – Madrone Matishak

Madrone Matishak is graduating with a B.A. in Dance with a Contemporary Concentration and a minor in Arts Leadership and Business. She is currently interning with the City of Albuquerque Public Art Urban Enhancement Division and is interested in the intersections of performance and public spaces. While at UNM Madrone has had the honor of working with professionals in the field of dance, both through the university and in the community, and had the distinct opportunity to present a self-choreographed solo at the South-Central American College Dance Association Conference. Upon graduation, Madrone would like to engage in arts advocacy and dance professionally.
