

Arts-Based Community Engaged Projects: Healing Arts IV

Spring 2019: Tuesdays 3:15-6:15pm

In this course students will be working on the Lines Across Time Memory Booth, which was created to be a safe space for servicemembers, veterans and their family members to anonymously share their feelings and leave messages for lost loved ones.

You can find out more about this project at: www.linesacrosstime.org

Community-engaged arts projects from other parts of the world will also be discussed.

Taught by Naomi Natale, Founder/Director of One Million Bones and Dr. Patrice Repar, Founder of Arts-in-Medicine at UNM.

Arts-Based Community Engaged Projects: Healing Arts IV is the fourth course in the Healing Arts Certificate Program, a series of community engaged learning courses exploring connections between creativity and healing.

No prerequisites required. Register early under one of the following sections:

DANC 487-48697

DANC 587-48698

THEA 487-48699

THEA 587-48700

MUS 487-48257

MUS 587-48258

MA 487-47121

IFDM 491-45051

In the future, this course will be listed as FA *486

For more information contact:

Melissa Sandoval

Arts-in-Medicine

Program Coordinator

mwsandov@unm.edu

505.277.0404